13 An initial hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before me
14 on April 19, 2006. The United States was represented by AUSA Lawrence Lincoln and the 15 defendant by Carol Koller. The proceedings were digitally recorded.

16 Defendant had been sentenced on or about July 11, 1997 by the Honorable Joan A. Lenard
17 in the Southern District of Florida on charges of Importation of Cocaine and Possession with 18 Intent to Distribute Cocaine, and sentenced to 34 months custody, 4 years supervised release.

19 The conditions of supervised release included the standard conditions plus the requirement
20 that defendant not remain illegally in the United States and not re-enter the United States without 21 permission.

22 In an application dated December 9, 2002 , U.S. Probation Officer Adalys Garcia alleged the following violation of the conditions of supervised release:

1. Entering the United States without the express written permission of the Attorney General of the United States or her [sic] authorized representative and remaining illegally in the United States. Ms. Dominquez-Solano illegally re-entered the United States on or about August 16, 2002.

Jurisdiction of this case was transferred to this court on April 19, 2006 and assigned to the Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez.

Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to her constitutional rights.

Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred.

I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated her supervised release as alleged, and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be set before Judge Martinez.

Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained.

DATED this 19th day of April, 2006.

Mary Alice Theiler
United States Magistrate Judge
